

Name: _____

SUMMER FUN BINGO

Miss Nelson is Missing by Harry Allard

Directions: Choose enough activities to make BINGO! Put an X over the squares you are using.
Turn this sheet in along with your completed projects.

Write two sentences about your favorite character in the story.	Create a picture of one part of the book. Be sure to color the picture.	Find two words from the story that you do not understand. Look them up in the dictionary and write their meaning.
Write two sentences about how the story would be different if you change the setting.	List two ways you are like the character in the book. List two ways you are different from the character in the book.	Create a collage to represent items from the book. Utilize pictures from magazines, newspapers, or clip art from the computer.
Create a picture of one character from the book. Be sure to color the picture and include the character's name.	Write a poem about a character from the book.	Write two sentences explaining why you would recommend this book to a friend. What did you like about the book?

Name: _____

SUMMER FUN BINGO

Frog and Toad Are Friends by Arnold Lobel

Directions: Choose enough activities to make BINGO! Put an X over the squares you are using.
Turn this sheet in along with your completed projects.

Write two sentences about your favorite character in the story.	Create a picture of one part of the book. Be sure to color the picture.	Find two words from the story that you do not understand. Look them up in the dictionary and write their meaning.
Write two sentences about how the story would be different if you change the setting.	List two ways you are like the character in the book. List two ways you are different from the character in the book.	Create a collage to represent items from the book. Utilize pictures from magazines, newspapers, or clip art from the computer.
Create a picture of one character from the book. Be sure to color the picture and include the character's name.	Write a poem about a character from the book.	Write two sentences explaining why you would recommend this book to a friend. What did you like about the book?

